Governance for Mediterranean Silvopastoral Systems: Lessons from the Iberian Dehesas and Montados

Editors: Teresa Pinto-Correia, Maria Helena Guimarães, Gerardo Moreno, Rufino Acosta Naranjo

Perspectives on Rural Policy and Planning

GOVERNANCE FOR MEDITERRANEAN SILVO-
PASTORAL SYSTEMS

LESSONS FROM THE IBERIAN DEHESAS AND MONTADOS

Edited by

Teresa Pinto-Correia, Maria Helena Guimarães,
Gerardo Moreno and Rufino Acosta Naranjo

This book is about the resilience of silvo-pastoral systems now, and in the future. As such, it is about people.

The goal is to fill the gap in the knowledge on silvo-pastoral systems and their changing trends, by adding the human dimension, with enough detail to draw inferences about the new governance solutions that are needed to address the multiple challenges faced by silvo-pastoral systems.

In this session we will walk through each section. Provide a closer look to one of the chapters and discuss the value and utility of this work.

We hope the book will be valuable to university and research institute, libraries, academics, policy officials, and stakeholder groups, such as NGOs and sectoral organizations, who wish to better understand the relevance of the human factor and use this knowledge to find sustainable solutions.

Our goal was to edit a book that can be a central reading for postgraduate students enrolled in rural planning, landscape management and governance, agronomy and forestry, as well as geography and socio-ecology programmes, that have a focus on sustainable land use management and supporting mixed farming systems.
